Market Update

Valencia, October 29 2026

Riba Mundo Tecnología S.A., (the "Company" or "Riba Mundo") - tech company specialising in Big Data active in the B2B segment of consumer electronics, based in Valencia (Spain) and listed on the Euronext Growth Milan market – announces that, on 7 October 2026, the Company received orders issued by the European Public Prosecutor's Office (EPPO), Madrid Office, notifying the Company of precautionary measures affecting its assets in connection with investigations conducted by the competent authorities into alleged tax-related irregularities.

These orders provide for the imposition of precautionary measures affecting the Company's bank accounts and certain assets owned by the Company, resulting in significant restrictions on the availability of its resources and, at present, impairing its ability to ensure the regular conduct of its business operations and the ordinary management of its corporate obligations.

These measures have also resulted in limitations on the ability of the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer to perform his duties, giving rise to circumstances that affect the proper functioning of the Company's corporate bodies and the conduct of its management activities. The Company, together with its legal advisors, is currently undertaking the necessary assessments to determine how its corporate bodies may continue to operate under the present circumstances.

The Company will safeguard its rights and interests, reserving the right to take any appropriate action in its defence in relation to any measures adopted by the competent authorities, before the relevant authorities or in any other appropriate forum. The Company also undertakes to keep the market promptly informed of any material developments, in compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

The Company further announces that it has received formal notice from Banca Profilo S.p.A. of its withdrawal, with immediate effect, from its appointments as Euronext Growth Advisor, Corporate Broker and Specialist.

The Company will initiate the necessary procedures for the appointment of a new Euronext Growth Advisor, in accordance with the provisions of the Euronext Growth Milan Rules for Companies and applicable laws and regulations.

The Company further announces that it has received formal notice of resignation from BDO Auditores S.L.P., the Company's statutory auditor.

Finally, the Company announces that it has received a communication from Mr Bernardo Maurizio, Independent Director, expressing his intention to resign from his position.
